Welcome to Armeno

The Santa Maria Assunta Church is a Roman church. It is UNESCO world heritage, therefore no works can be carried out here, only the paving outside the Church has been changed. Inside the church there are 5 frescos, the ceiling is very high with a dome shape and twelve arches.

Armeno's neighborhoods

Armeno is in Piedmont, near Mottarone and near the picturesque lake Orta and has 2204 inhabitants.

Armeno has four neighbourhoods.

Armeno has two suburbs:

Coiomonte, Sovazza and two hamlets: Bassola, Cheggino.

Lavignino

In the Lavignino neighbourhood there are many interesting things. There is Saint Anne's Church in the middle of the neighbourhood. There is a bar facing the river. There is a burnt house because of an accident. There is a supermarket on the main road and a factory, next to the factory there is a beauty centre, and in front of the factory there is a spiritual centre.

Farfareno

In the Farfareno neighbourhood you can find the main square which is called Farfareno square right under Mount Giasso. Walking in the neighbourhood there are many picturesque corners, like the one with the old wash house. The "Alpini" house under the Bagnalera Hill with the playground and San Rocco's Church. In the neighbourhood there is also a holiday home.

Pasquarolo and Capovico

In the Pasquarolo neighbourhood we can find the San Giuseppe Church with the oratory right at the entrance of the neighbourhood. In this neighbourhood there are many services like the doctor's office and the dentist office. There is also a tecnica agency and like every neighbourhood there is a wash house and a bakery.

In the Capovico neighbourhood we can find the San Antonio Church. In this neighbourhood we can find the oldest wash house of Armeno, it dates back to 1921. This neighbourhood used to house the dump site of Armeno. There are fields and pastures which characterize the area.
